II. NUMBER 22. WHOLE NO. 74.]

BLOOMFIELD, NEW JERSEY, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1884.

[PRICE, $2.00 PER YEAR.

THE BLOOMFIELD CITIZEN

A WEEKLY JOURNAL
OF
LOCAL NEWS AND HOME READING.

Published at the Post Office at Bloomfield as second-class matter.

Office: Over the Post Office.

Hours: From 7:30 to 9 o'clock p. m. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

Special Notice.

During the summer, the office of the Citizen will be open Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, from 7:30 to 9 o'clock p. m. All communications should be sent to the office before Thursday evening.

The author's name must accompany all communications or contributions to the Citizen, which will be published or not as directed. All others will be rejected.

ABOUT TOWN.

Wm. Cook, agent at the Watessing, has a vacation of two weeks.

Mrs. Edwin Horrax, of Glen Ridge, N. J., died Friday, the 12th, after a brief illness.

Miss Helen Paxton and Miss Allie have been visiting at Lincoln Park, N. J.

The Dickerson Battery attended the parade in Orange on Wednesday evening.

The Bee Hive, whose new advertisement appears in this issue, will be closed to day on account of the Hebrew New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Wey, who have been in Europe for six months past, are expected home to-morrow by the steamer.

A. P. Quimby, of Watessing, has been elected Captain of the Watessing and Logan Club, in place of John.

Those who heard Mrs. Pearson, Temperance Evangelist from England, in July, will be glad to learn that she is to lecture here at this time on Temperance. See advertisement.

Bloomfield Lodge, No. 40, F. & A. M., has an unusual amount of work before it, as the several applications for membership to the Lodge meet every first and third Tuesday evening.

Parents who may wish to send their children to a select private school, are reminded that Miss Northall's school in Broad street, Broad st., will be re-opened Monday, September 22nd.

The uniforms of the Bloomfield Republican Battery consist of blue shirts, with blue collars and cuffs, and a white shield inscribed with "Bloomfield" and "1864" in black and white caps, with torches.

Prof. L. F. Segadlo, of Newark, will give a school for dancing on Wednesday, the 15th, at Montclair Hall, Montclair.

Desiring to learn how to trip the light fantastic, the would do well to confer with him.

Parties desiring to reach New York from Bloomfield on Sunday, later than the train in the morning, can take a car on the Orange branch at the Bloomfield Avenue crossing a few minutes past 10 o'clock every Sunday morning.

Arthur Leuthauser is making changes in the hotel. An addition 16 x 25 feet is being added to the southern end of the building, which will be used as a bar room. The present bar-room will be changed into a billiard room, and a sitting-room will be added where the dining-room now is.

John C. Newman has the carpenter work, and M. Ball the mason work.

Several rumors have come to us that the Dickerson Battery had a committee lying in wait for the correspondent who wrote an article about their ratification meeting the amount of beer consumed. We advise our Democratic friends to be on their guard, as they may carry the spoon in his hand.

The result might be disastrous.

Possibly an impression may prevail, the advertisement in our columns of the New Jersey Business College, 764 and Broad street, Newark, that pupils enter at stated periods. Such is not the fact. The College is open all the year, and may enter at any time. The attendance is very large for this season.

We learn, the indications are for an increase in numbers over last year, which is the best in the history of the school.

The Pioneer Club have received their uniforms, which consist of white Prince Albert coats with blue trimmings and brass buttons, white leggings, blue sash, and the new patent Blued Knight helmet, and the uniformed Blued-Jax and torch. The uniform is patented by Geo. Sawyer & Co., of Greene street, N. Y., who furnished the uniforms. It is by far the prettiest helmet ever adopted by the Republican National Committee.

—Miss Maggie Bowers of Liverpool, N. Y., is spending a few weeks in town.

—Miss Grace H. Duffield returned to her studies at South Bethlehem, Thursday.

—Edward Hawey has returned to Bloomfield after an absence of seven years.

—Miss Bessie Pierce of Mine Hill, N. J., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Geo. H. Cooper.

—The iron bridge over Broad street on the N. Y. & G. L. Railroad is nearly completed.

—The flag pole on the park is in need of paint. Where is that "responsible person?"

—J. Theron Reford and G. Theron Moore have been spending a season at Asbury Park.

—The Democratic cannon really is alive. It can now do its part as far as noise is concerned.

—Miss Minnie Cadmus, who has been very sick with pneumonia at Middletown, N. Y., is now improving.

—The Executive Committee of the Republican Club will meet at Upper Library Hall, Tuesday evening September 23d.

—A number of young men are paying their one dollar tax before October first and thus save the two cents rebate. Walk up.

—The Bee Hive, Newark, closed at 6 p. m. Friday, and will reopen at 5.30 p. m. to-day, being closed to observe the Hebrew New Year.

—Persons wishing to join the Blaine and Logan Cavalry Company, which is now being formed, will please leave their names as early as possible with Robt. M. Stiles.

—Mrs. John Newton will return to Bloomfield next week. During the absence of the family Mr. Newton has considerably enlarged and improved his house on Franklin street.

—The Colored Blaine and Logan Club present a unique appearance in their uniforms, consisting of blue pants, white shirt, white leggings and red Turk's cap. They will carry torches.

—The Trustees of Westminster Church are now considering the question of a lecture course for the coming season. The entertainments will probably be given on Tuesday evenings, beginning some time in November.

—The following named gentlemen were delegates to the Butler and West convention, which was held in Newark Thursday: T. P. Hewlett, T. H. Cadmus, S. M. Holm, J. Hughes, C. W. Powers, Jr., and P. S. Cadmus.

—Victor Corrao of Glenridge was coming from his house on Monday evening and seeing Dodd's express wagon pass he attempted to board it, and in so doing was struck by a horse, which was passing, driven by two young men. He fell to the ground, the horse and wagon passing over him, while the young men drove rapidly on to Montclair. The expressman assisted Corrao to his house where he was attended by a physician, his injuries consisted of numerous bruises.

—A Brookdale farmer passed through town Tuesday morning with a load of water melons. On reaching Metz's saloon he stopped to refresh himself, the horses soon became tired and endeavored to reach home in double quick time. The team was stopped near the post office by two men who threw a blanket over their heads. The unfortunate farmer did not think it necessary to give the men a melon. They yearned for one nevertheless.

Bartlett Post, G. A. R.

The Ladies' League of Bartlett Post, G. A. R., of Caldwell, will give a grand entertainment and picnic for the benefit of the Post, on the afternoon and evening of Thursday, September 25th, at Eden Wilde's Grove and Lake in Verona. Programme will consist of dancing, boating, with plenty of refreshments, and a good band of music in attendance. Invitations have been sent to a number of neighboring Posts, who are expected to be present with ours.

Lehlbach Engineer Corps.

The Lehlbach Engineer Corps will attend a parade in Arlington this evening. On this occasion they will make the first public appearance in their new uniforms, which consist of white coats with red trimmings, white caps, red sash, white pants and red lanterns. The following letter has been received from Hon. Herman Lehlbach, the Republican Congressional nominee:

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 13th, 1884.

THEODORE CADMUS, Captain.
I thank you very much for your telegram and letter. I shall call on you in a few days and personally express my thanks for your kind expression of support.

Yours fraternally,
HERMAN LEHLBACH.

Township Committee.

The Township Committee met on Wednesday evening all the members being present.

The gas committee reported that the Company would reduce the price of gas from $2.75 to $2.50 per thousand feet, but would not erect lamps on Canal street, and Washington and Ridgewood avenues. A lengthy discussion followed about the poor service, poor gas, scarcity of lamps and all the other defective points in the Company.

A motion to renew the contract of last year was lost unanimously, and another motion to the effect that no contract would be signed until the Gas Company would further reduce the price and erect lamps where they were wanted. The Clerk was authorized to notify the Gas Company to discontinue the lighting of lamps after October first until a new contract was made. The Committee are determined in their intention to compel the Gas Company to submit to reasonable requests, and the sooner the Gas Company comply, the better it will be financially for them.

The Road Committee reported on work done and to be done.

The Sidewalk Committee were authorized to ask for bids for laying 1,500 lineal feet of four-foot stone walk.

The Council was authorized to notify the N. Y. & G. L. Railroad Company to replace the bridge on Highland avenue, which was removed some time ago.

Seminary Lectures.

Lectures on the history of Bloomfield and Montclair will be given at the Seminary Lecture Room, on successive Tuesday evenings.

1. The Earliest Beginnings—Bloomfield in the "Newark" Church Town—October 7.

2. The One Hundred Years before Bloomfield 1796—October 14.

3. The Early Families and the Early Houses—Puritan, Dutch and English—October 21.

4. The History of "the Church on the Common"—October 28.

5. The History of Schools and of Education—November 5.

And perhaps—6. Civil Institutions and Enterprises—November 12.

The Hose Company's Reception.

The Bloomfield Hose Company's reception was unavoidably postponed from Saturday evening to Monday evening, Sept. 22, 1884.

Line forms at 8 p. m., on Berkeley hill, and column will move on Bloomfield avenue to Liberty street, to Broad street, to Montgomery street, to Franklin street, west side of Park to Munro place; Spruce to Beach street, to Bellevue avenue, to Broad street, to Park avenue, to Bloomfield avenue, to Ridgewood avenue, to Linden avenue, to Midland avenue, to Washington street, to Glenwood avenue, and dismiss.

About fifteen companies will be in line, and all in full uniform.

Officers in command are requested to be prompt in their reporting to Grand Marshal, who will be on the ground at 7.30 o'clock, as there will be no postponement of time. If companies fail to report, and come on the ground late, they will be assigned to the left of the line. Three guns will be the signal that the column is in motion.

(Signed.)

RICHARD HANDY,
Grand Marshal.

To the Lady Friends of Bloomfield Hose Co.

As it is designed to furnish refreshments to the visiting companies, about 500 men, the company would earnestly ask the co-operation of their lady friends to aid them in their endeavors to make this undertaking a success. We think that in this time of extreme political agitation, it may prove a happy feature in our town that we can lay aside all political prejudice, and unite as neighbors and friends in one general parade of all parties, who have very cordially responded to our invitation. As the ladies have nobly responded to similar calls in the past, we are convinced that they will do so on this occasion, and assist us in creating a good feeling and helping us build up what we very much desire—a strong social feeling and a happy and prosperous community.

Refreshments will consist of sandwiches, cake, coffee, milk and lemonade. Any offerings of the above will be gratefully accepted, and small contributions of money may be sent by ladies or gentlemen. If they prefer it, ladies, who will kindly assist at the reception (which will be held at Essex Hook and Ladder House, and at Dodd's Hall), will receive considerable attention by the Committee. Communications will be promptly acknowledged on receipt of such.

The house of the Hose Company will be open every evening next week from 7.30 to 9.30 p. m., and all friends of both sexes are cordially invited to pay us a visit and inspect the new carriage. A committee will be in attendance, and every attention will be paid to visitors.

(Signed.)

RICHARD HANDY,
Chairman of Committee and Grand Marshal.

[To the Citizen.]

To the alleged eagle on the new Democratic banner across Broad street:

Are you a fish-bawk, or are you a crow, or are you some bird that none of us know? Or may you, perhaps, perched there on your hummock,

Be a buzzard with only a pain in your stomach.

Licenses for Bloomfield.

At the opening of the Court of Common Pleas, on Tuesday, September 2d, applications were made as usual for hotel and saloon licenses. Below will be found the names of applicants from Bloomfield, together with their signers.

If it shall appear that any of these names have been used without permission, a statement to that effect sent to the Citizen, or any member of the committee, will secure proper notice in the next issue of this paper.

JOHN ROBINSON—Saloon.

Benjamin Mortimer, Henry Taylor, Edwin Smith, Thomas Albion, William Hill, Wright C. Davis.

PETER GRUB—Hotel.

Martin J. Callahan, Charles W. Lockwood, Fred, W. Riemer, Balthezer Kentz, Christian Hauss, John Strang, John Murphy, John Peters.

TIMOTHY HALLINAN—Hotel.

Joseph Morris, Charles Shadr, Fred. Florus, William Davis, James Boyne, Jr., John Gehring, James Boyne.

WILLIAM J. RAAB—Hotel.

George Peterson, Richard M. Erler, James J. Nicol, John P. Widen, Julius Gennert, H. Lellman, John Gottschalk, Tulus Trotter.

ARTHUR LEUCHOUSSER—Hotel.

RICHARD GREEN—Hotel.

Thomas Upton, Jacob Cavan, John Hoes, Henry West, John J. Gee, Patrick Conry, Peter Donaghy, John Glennon, William Holt.

Application was also made for a saloon license by John Glovin, whose saloon-although in East Orange, is almost on the township line, and as he had already been arrested for selling without license, and had given bonds to appear in court and plead guilty, it was deemed advisable to include this case also.

All of the above applications were opposed by the Law and Order League through their counsel, and Friday, the 5th inst., was appointed for a further hearing, at which time licenses were granted to Raab and Leuchousser and the application of Green was rejected.

Decision on the remaining cases was reserved until the following Wednesday and resulted in the granting of licenses to Geib, Hallinan and Robinson, and rejecting application of Glovin. The following summary will show the progress of the work thus far.

One hotel and two saloons have been refused their licenses. The proprietors of two saloons have gone out of business after having been arrested, and eleven complaints are now before the Grand Jury for indictments against those selling without license.

It is now proposed to proceed at once against those who, after repeated warnings, have violated the law against selling on Sundays; substantial evidence in nearly every case having been secured. It is hoped that every citizen who wishes to see the law complied with, will offer cheerful and prompt financial aid in order that the work may be vigorously pushed.

LAW AND ORDER LEAGUE.
